

RIGHT THE CONVENTION WRONG.

There is a popular demand, not only from Democratic voters, but independent voters who intend to support the Democratic ticket, that the Democratic City and County Committee right the glaring wrong of last week's convention. For two months or more L. D. Greene, a young Democratic lawyer with a following second to none, had been a candidate for County Judge. There was no organized or even rumored opposition to his candidacy. At the eleventh hour, or on the convention floor, the name of Judge James P. Gregory was proposed, and in a mysterious manner which does not speak well for fair play enough delegates were "influenced" to Gregory, the latter not even being present at the convention.

The Evening Post in championing Judge Gregory's candidacy the day following the convention made the absurd claim that Judge Gregory would add 2,500 votes to the Democratic ticket. There are more than that number of Democrats who remember Gregory's bitter attack on the Democratic party and leadership just four years ago in open speeches, and these speeches were thought of so highly by the Republican Campaign Committee that they were published in book form and circulated among the voters. The great majority of Democrats prefer Mr. Greene for that nomination, and will vote so in a primary if need be. Chairman John C. Doonan and his associates of the Democratic Committee must realize this, and should endeavor to withdraw Gregory, making the primary contest unnecessary.

White, Black and Tan.

Judge Huston Quin Will Be Asked
Embarrassing Questions on Stump.

Near Mayor Smith Squelched by Bosses and Gambling Explanation Held.

COL. PETTY IS HERE AGAIN.

The local city and county Republican machine under the guidance of Ches Searcy, Matt Chilton, "Governor" Berlingame and their sides put forth another mighty effort for "reform" this week and the machine organ, the Louisville Herald, tells what perfect harmony prevailed among the white and black and tan delegates selected for the Republican convention. The black and tan delegates selected at the different negro barber shops where conventions were held went on record for Judge Huston Quin, purity and righteousness. Possibly through oversight the Herald failed to tell its readers just how many negro delegates were present at the convention and in publishing the list failed to tell who was white, who was black and who was tan. For instance in the Ninth ward there were twenty-one delegates, eleven of whom are negroes, under the leadership of Harvey Burns, the official city colored undertaker, who is reported to have controlled several of the gambling places mentioned by the Mayor grand jury. The Tenth ward, which is composed of 50 per cent negro population, sent fifteen out of the thirty-six delegates, and the colored brother and sister Republican politicians said they were going to protest to "Mr. Chesley" about not having bigger representation.

On the other hand, some of the "illy white" Republicans bitterly protested against the large number of negro delegates selected. Their chief grievance was not that they would block the Searcy-Chilton programme, but frankly said the Scottish Rite Hall was only a fair sized hall, and with the terrible weather there would be much discomfort caused by too close a communion with the black and tan sisters and brothers. Another oversight of the Herald was that at the negro barber shop elections strong recommendations were adopted endorsing Gov. Morrow's stand in the John Dough (correct spelling) pardon case. "Howdy Ed," the negro fellows being loud in their praise of his pardon record, many of these sterling workers for "reform" saying that he hoped that "the Governor would turn out a whole lot moah as dar wuz meeny a good niggab publican in do pon." Resolutions were also adopted thanking the Board of Safety and Col. Petty for the Keystone police, who have proven universal favorites with the colored gamblers and burglars. Several of the leading colored Republicans were severe in their condemnation of the May and June grand juries who put the ban temporarily on the gambling games, but the speaker said summer time would be harvest time as no grand juries would be in session and the Republican collectors last night said "let's go."

The Herald said that at the district convention and in the big convention harmony prevailed. "Harmony" must be a nickname for Ches Searcy, for as far as one can see Boss Searcy was master of the situation and picked the Republican ticket from Judge Huston Quin down to Constable, like ex-Gov. William Marshall, C. C. Bullitt, James Grinstead and Wood Axton had no voice in the convention while Councilman Nick Denunzio, Jailer J. H. Barr, Tax Receiver "Ben Watts, Sheriff Ross and their friends were thrown to the wolves in short order. The Searcy-Chilton machine rode rough shod over the gentlemen named above and while they were being sacrificed all the little fish Republicans, white and black, chorled with glee. To add insult to injury the Searcy-Chilton machine dared Ross, Denunzio, Barr or any of the rest to run in the primary. They were told to watch the fate of the negro Lovett in the Tenth ward. Lovett is a candidate for Legislature and in the last election 5,354 Republican votes were cast, nearly 5,000 of that amount being negro votes. Yet the Searcy-Chilton machine will show a majority of that negro vote cast for the white candidate, against Lovett, one of their own race. This is the warning to Ross, Denunzio, Barr and the rest. Wonder if Judge Huston Quin will approve the methods of the machine in this knock-down and drag-out affair. Of course the hypocritical Herald will tell its readers that absolute fairness prevailed.

Right now in this connection we want to say that the Democratic Committee should issue invitations to the long lost Men's Federation leaders and all independent voters to take a stroll through the Tenth ward on that day and see for themselves how "reform" works. This invitation goes specially for Rev. M. P. Hunt and Rev. Dr. Welch. The interest in the Emmert decision shows that the people are as a whole interested in the affairs of the Democratic party this year, and all are anxious and pulling for a good ticket to clean out the sham reformers, Keystone police and the black firemen. White voters, men and women, are keenly interested in the Democratic ticket and may like W. O. Head, Prof. J. H. Richmond, M. O. Curd, James L. Garnett, Fred Kelsker, or Charles H. Knight can lead the ticket to victory. The ticket selected at the recent convention on the whole is a strong one and one that will appeal to the voters. There are a couple of changes that can be adjusted by the committee and its advisers that will make it a winner. The nomination of County Judge Smith to be given to L. D. Greene, this being the most important change and with one or two alterations the ticket will ride to victory over the Searcy-Chilton machine again.

The voters do not relish the idea of Judge Huston Quin deserting the Court of Appeals bench and four years to serve. It is supposed that Quin will try to hang on one and run for the other, but public opinion will force him to resign. In that event the machine proposes to name near Mayor Smith as Quin's successor to serve until the 1922 election. By the way, have you noticed how they have squelched the poor old near Mayor on the phone situation, the earfare question and all other matters of interest to the taxpayers? Recently Smith announced that he was going to issue a long statement explaining why the grand jury discovered so much gambling under his reign, but he was squelched by the machine bosses. It is thought, and not a sound comes from the near Mayor. The last time the public heard from him was on the daylight saving question and one of the arguments advanced in favor of the near Mayor and Dave Iose's daylight saving method was that it gave one an opportunity to get away early and play golf. Many of the L. & N. shoppens, consisting of bootmakers, blacksmiths, section hands and others, are loud in their praise of near Mayor Smith for giving them time to play golf after a strenuous working day. Wonder how many tollers and workers does the near Mayor meet in his daily play on the golf links.

Now that Judge Huston Quin is going to be standard-bearer of the Republican machine many voters anxiously await his explanation and defense of the present misadventure. He will have to explain why Police Captains Guelph and Snicker were removed as Captains and then made detectives while under Night Chief Laird. He will also be expected to tell how much was collected from automobilists for violation of the parking laws, who has charge of the money now, and it must be quite a sum as many and many a $3 fine has been collected in three years and a half. Judge Quin may also explain why Capt. Curran played "I Spy" with Pete Blitzer's two truck loads of whisky and what John Curran holds now under the "reform" administration. Many will also want Judge Quin to tell in his beautiful way how Collector Lucas' special appointee, Tommy Butler, was lulled to sleep while four barrels of whisky were swiped within a few feet of Tommy's slumbers. The Republican standard-bearer might explain why the big majority of soft (?) drink proprietors are being assessed for his candidacy, and what are he or his backers promising for that support. But the sad part of the campaign is that the poor old Keystone police and hick firemen are being picked for $45 apiece by the Searcy-Chilton machine, and we want to see the Judge dare deny this before his audiences, or does he think it is bright. The Democrats can look forward to a pleasant evening quizzing the Judge and if he balks the public can punish him for contempt of court.

STIRRING FRANKFORT DRAMA.

"The pardon came in the nick of time," as played by Morrow, Galvin, Dough & Co.

Just one word more for our good friend Col. Petty, whom we haven't heard from in a long time until Thursday morning, when he pulled a little comedy stuff for the reporters. The Chief told a Courier-Journal reporter that the Louisville Police Department is anxious to help the city in the "gang of the brown bootleggers." Pretty good for the Colonel, isn't it? Oh! well; the Chief always would have his fun. Aside from the wholesale liquor traffic going on the Keystone police have been doing nothing but work in the crusade against gambling since the grand jury censure last week two of our ex-street car "yaps" made an important capture at Thirty-fourth and Broadway, arresting three criminals aged about fifteen years for pitching nickels at eleven years. They have been highly commended for the police ability displayed and the next issue of the Republican machine book will contain photographs of the intrepid Keystoneers. We have but one favor to ask of Col. Petty, now that he is talking for publication again, and that is please let us have a parade of the Keystone police department, headed by the police jazz band, that has been rehearsing without a public performance since the day after he became Chief. A parade like that would be a big advertisement for the State Fair, as the fame of the Keystoneers is not confined to State boundaries. What do you say, Chief?

NATIONAL HOLIDAY.

The Fourth of July falls on Monday and the public celebration of the national holiday will be generally observed. The words of the Kentucky Irish American one year ago again are applicable. Despite the strenuous times and high cost of living, the American people have cause for rejoicing, and for God's innumerable blessings all should return heartfelt thanks. In Louisville the heart will be generally observed, with one of the greatest of the many gatherings at the orphan's picnic on St. Vincent's Home grounds. Every patriotic citizen should append the day or evening there and help bring joy to those little ones who are without earthly parents. The programme will be for young and old and will prove very interesting.

MOTHER ROSE BETTER.

Many will welcome the news that the condition of Mother Rose, head of the Sisters of Charity of Nazareth, who has been critically ill at St. Mary and Elizabeth Hospital, has changed for the better and her recovery now seems assured. Mother Rose has over 800 Sisters under her charge.

CONFERENCE TO BE IN LONDON

Premier David Lloyd George has sent a letter to both Eamonn De Valera, the Irish Republican leader, and Sir James Craig, the Ulster Premier, declaring the British Government to be anxious that King George's appeal for reconciliation in Ireland shall not have been made in vain. The letter appeals for a conference between representatives of the Government and Southern and Northern Ireland so that the opportunity shall not be lost. The letter, which is dated June 24, is couched in indelicate terms to both President De Valera and Sir James Craig, Ulster Premier, will probably gather in the historic Cabinet room at No. 10 Downing street, or at St. James Palace. The meeting would be private. Dominion Premiers are practically unanimous that De Valera will accept. Several of the Dominion ministers who were seen had been led to understand that King George had more to do with inducing Lloyd George to take this hold step than had any one else.

Eamonn De Valera, the Irish Republican leader, is not yet ready to give a definite answer to Premier Lloyd George's letter inviting him to a conference for an Irish settlement. He has briefly replied to the Premier, however, expressing the earnest desire for a lasting peace, but deems unity of Ireland essential to that end. The Irish Bulletin, organ of the Dail Eireann, in a special issue published De Valera's reply to the British Prime Minister. It is as follows:

"I am consulting with such of the principal representatives of our nation as are available. We most earnestly desire to help in bringing about a lasting peace between the peoples of these two islands, but see no avenue by which it can be reached if you deny Ireland essential unity. Before replying more fully to your letter I am seeking a conference with certain representatives of the political minority in this country."

The proposal of Premier David Lloyd George for a conference in London on the Irish question between representatives of Southern and Northern Ireland and the British Government is impossible of acceptance in its present form. This declaration is made by Eamonn De Valera, the Irish Republican leader, to Sir James Craig, the Ulster Premier, in reply to Sir James' notification that he can not meet De Valera in a preliminary conference in Dublin.

invitation for a conference at the Mansion House in Dublin on Monday, which presumably will form a prelude to a further reply by De Valera to the British Prime Minister.

THE DAY FOR ALL.

Everything is set and ready for Louisville's celebration of the Fourth of July on Monday at the annual picnic and reunion for the benefit of the orphans on the shady and beautiful grounds surrounding St. Vincent's Orphan Home, Payne and Cavewood. For weeks past many committees have been at work in an effort to make this the greatest and most successful Fourth of July event yet held here, and it is almost certain that with a pleasant day this result will be attained. The meeting of committees Monday night, the last before the picnic, was a rousing and enthusiastic one, every Chairman reporting "Ready." This week much time was given to arranging the various booths and stands and the grounds were never in better shape. There has been a generous response to Barney Campbell's appeal for chickens, shipments having been received from Bardonia, Letchfield, Irvington, New Haven, Uniontown and many other points in the State. All those having hooks were urged to make their returns as soon as possible. A most welcome letter, wishing every success and a wonderful day for the orphans and containing a check for $100, was received from Mrs. E. R. Bradley, Lexington, whose husband last week gave $5,000 for the orphans of Kentucky. There will be a variety of amusements in operation from the opening to the close, and the dinner and supper will satisfy everybody. Donations and supplies may be sent to the following depots, where they will be gathered by the Transportation Committee: George J. Hahlich, 942 East Market. Rogers Church Goods Co., 129 South Fourth. St. Charles Rectory, Twenty-seventh and Chestnut. George J. Butler, Twenty-first and Portland. Moriarty & Bro., Sixth and Kentucky. Mrs. Coughlin's residence, 3108 South Third. Joseph J. Kirchdorfer, Baxter and Christy.

There will be satisfactory street car service, special arrangements having been made for extra cars via East Walnut street, which stop at the entrance to the home and grove, where the orphans will give their good friends a most hearty welcome.

O'DOHERTY AT LEXINGTON.

"Religious Education and American Citizenship" was the subject of the address delivered last week by Judge Matt O'Doherty before the members of the St. Peter branch of the National Council of Catholic Men in the Knights of Columbus Hall at Lexington. In his address Judge O'Doherty sketched the position taken by the Catholic Church in regard to education and how by the teachings of the church none of its members were to be found among the ranks of those who would join into the radical movements now on foot throughout the country. The Catholic Church, he also declared, by its position against divorce was doing much to preserve the sanctity of the home and the American Government.

RETREAT BEGINS FRIDAY.

The first of the series of week-end retreats for laymen, to be given under the auspices of the Knights of Columbus at Gethsemani Monastery, will begin next Friday. This retreat movement is meeting with great success elsewhere and should be appreciated, the invitation being extended to non-members and non-Catholics as well as the Knights. These retreats are under the patronage of Right Rev. Bishop O'Donoghue, and the entire expense will be but $13.50. Trains will leave Tenth and Broadway at 8:25 each Monday morning, and returning will arrive the following Monday morning at 7:40 o'clock. All communications should be addressed to Secretary John P. Cassilly, 1001 South Brook street.

DAUGHTERS OF ISABELLA.

The regular Sunday afternoon meetings of Louisville Circle, Daughters of Isabella, have been dispensed with for the months of July and August. During these two months the meetings on the third Tuesday of each will be a combined social and business one. Miss Mary Cummins, by virtue of her office as Vice Regent, has succeeded Miss Rose Kavanaugh as Regent. The new Regent, Miss Cummins, has just returned from Indianapolis, where she attended a conference of Regents of the States of Kentucky, Indiana and Ohio. Thirty-one cities were represented at this conference. The Sunset given by the Daughters of Isabella on last Saturday was a huge success and was thoroughly enjoyed by the members and friends of the Circle.

FOSTER'S SPY SYSTEM.

Capt. Robert J. Foster, who helped ruin the Republican administration of Mayor Grinstead, is now at the head of a strike-breaking organization in the East, and in a letter to employers says that his men can get into unions and carry on an intrigue, "which would result in factions, disagreement, resignations of officers and a general decrease in membership." Foster's agency also claims to control the activities of unions and direct their policies. Judging from his methods the present Republican "reform" administration could use its former henchman here again.

FATHER MUNTSCHE'S TRIBUTE.

Hearthbroken, suffering from the persecutions heaped upon him by a fickle populace, knowing like his Divine Master "what was in man," Dante, "the central man of the Middle Ages," one of the supreme representatives of world-literature, died at Ravenna, Italy, September 14, 1321. His native city of Florence, where he saw the light of day in May, 1265, and which misunderstood and persecuted him during life, was the one to give him in the hour of death. But, time heals many wounds. The fierce enmity begotten of political strife has died away. The bitter contest between Guelph and Ghibelline, in which Dante sided with the former, belongs to history. But the fame of the Florentine seer has increased with the centuries. And on September 14 of this year a world will do him reverence. In Italy the plans for the celebrations include the ornamentation of Dante's tomb, the rearrangement of the Mediceal Museum, the restoration of the Da Polenta Chapel in San Francesco, and of the adjoining hall containing the Dante relics at Ravenna.

This man who had eaten the bread of sorrow, who is called the voice of the ten silent centuries, passed the best part of his life in wandering from one city to another, and died a broken-hearted exile. And yet few of Italy's distinguished sons are now honored like the author of "Divina Commedia." Greatness indeed does not remain in worldly splendor and in the puffs of the city's throng. It consists in the moral perfection of character. Dante perfected his Christian character on the model presented him by Jesus of Nazareth. Seeing him, a stranger upon their streets, the children, pointing their finger at him, whispered: "There goes the man who has been in hell." It has been well said that on the title-page of his book he might have written these words: "That which mine eyes have seen of anguish, that which my ears have heard of woe, that of agony which my heart has felt, I describe unto you."

The "Divine Comedy" is an undying work because it touches a man's age of supreme importance to all men at all times. As Dr. Hettlinger says, "the Divine Comedy stands pointing toward heaven like a cathedral of the Middle Ages, towering above all similar works of later date." It will always remain the masterpiece of deep, spiritual insight into the meaning of human life. Its fundamental idea is the solution of the great, eternal, only problem of life—the delivery of the human soul from the bondage of the senses into the realm of the spirit. Nor is such uninstilled praise bestowed only by Catholic commentators. "No book," says H. W. Mahle, "ever swept a wider field of thought, or imbedded itself more completely in historical incident and character, and yet no book ever issued more directly out of the life of its writer."

Dante belonged to the Guelph or Papal or popular party of Italy in the Middle Ages. They were opposed to the Ghibellines, the imperial and aristocratic party. He therefore experienced the bitterness of political strife. He knew what our disappointments lie in wait for him who champions the cause of political and social justice. But he was not moved by self-seeking or ambition. He sought the good of his faction-torn Florence. And though he was driven into exile, yet now, as we look back over the centuries which have heaped the scars of battle, we see that he achieved the victory. The slogan of Dante in the fierce conflicts into which he was urged, was "Justice and Charity." These virtues helped him to interpret the experiences of his marvelous vision of hell, purgatory, and heaven. Dante is the poet of Catholic theology and he could ill afford to lose sight of these two heavenly virtues. On the gates of hell he saw written the line: "Justice the founder of my fabric moved." That is, divine justice requires that the most no such a place as this for the unrepentant sinner.

Dr. Gardner says that, "himself the victim of persecution and injustice, burning with zeal for the reformation and renovation of the world, Dante's impartiality is in the main, sublime. He is the man (to adopt his own phrase) to whom Truth appeals from her immutable throne. Impartiality, truth, justice and charity—these will infinitely heal social evils today and guide mankind to the path of lasting peace. But few there are who are deeply penetrated and inspired by the all-healing virtues. The "Divine Comedy," one of the supreme masterpieces of the world's literature, is the most eloquent apology for the perennial need of these virtues among earth's sorrowing children.

ANNIVERSARY.

The Kentucky Irish American first saw the light upon the Fourth of July twenty-three years ago, and therefore with this number nears its twenty-fifth anniversary two years hence. That our efforts are appreciated is evidenced by the fact that the management has been enabled to go through the war period without increasing its subscription rates and stands today stronger than ever. For this we give thanks to our readers and advertising patrons, and hope and pray that they may enjoy continued good health and live to celebrate with us our silver jubilee.

POLICE RESPONSIBLE.

Grim death rides about the streets of Louisville daily in automobiles and our present set of police allow speeders and reckless drivers free reign. Attention was called in these columns two weeks ago that there has not been an arrest for violation of the speed laws for several months and the ward set aside for speeders in the jail has been unused for over a year. Day and night reckless madmen run past a street car with passengers trying to get on or off, and there is not even a protest from police witnesses.

PERTINENT QUESTION.

Passing out Fourth avenue one sees instead of Bible quotations on the church bulletin boards the now popular announcement "Church closed for the summer and pastor gone away on a vacation." This brings to mind the pertinent question as to whether his Satanic Majesty, the devil, takes a vacation during the summer months or not, and if he does not, as all good authorities say, who will guard and advise the congregations of those many churches that are closed?

MAKE VICTORY SURE.

The re-election of De Valera to the Presidency of the Irish Republic by the new Dail Eireann is a tribute to the unity of purpose of the Irish leaders and a convincing proof of the faith of the Irish people in his leadership. The Irish people are the best judges of their own business. The responsibility, the suffering and the sacrifices for the cause are theirs. Consequently it is theirs to say who and what their policy shall be. Men will differ as to the means to effect a purpose. The mere fact of difference of opinion, however, does not imply any lack of sincerity, or of devotion to a great cause, and while each in his own way gives of his best to that cause his opinion should be respected and his work commended. At any rate the recent elections emphasize the unity of the national forces in Ireland, but it does more: it shows that the people have had the heat of the fight up to date, and face the future confident of success. Let us get behind them as one man and make the assurance of victory doubly sure.

GOVERNMENT OWNERSHIP.

Government ownership of railroads is demanded by the Federation of Labor. After a bitter fight the convention at Denver adopted the resolution. The idea is by no means new, nor is the plan an introduction to Socialism—as some of its opponents claimed. We tried government management of railroads during the war. It was not a huge success, but there were reasons for this. In the first place conditions were abnormal and in the second place there were those in high places who were interested in bringing about the failure of the scheme. We thought it was bad enough, but the management of our railroads since they were turned back has been much worse. We are not afraid of government ownership.

ENGLAND ONLY FAVORED.

Premier Lloyd George is willing to talk about disarmament provided it does not affect England's supremacy of the seven seas, which he insists must be maintained. That is to say, the Premier would support a movement for disarmament of all the other nations. However, it must not be understood that Lloyd George does not favor disarmament within the Empire, for that would be doing the dear man a gross injustice. In reality he is an enthusiast in the matter of disarmament—the disarmament of those terrible Sinn Féiners, and in order to effect this the good man would stop at nothing. For this purpose he has emptied the prisons of their strong-armed element, and pressed into service the gunmen of the slums and sent them all, armed to the teeth, into Ireland. Nay more, he has a choice collection of spies in every port in the United States. We are told, who secretly check up the cargoes of outward ships, all in the interest of the high cause of disarmament—of the Sinn Féiners. Now what more could one expect the good man to do? By the way, nothing would please the Premier better than to see the Government and people of the United States in active opposition to Sinn Féiners. Perhaps this may help to explain how British agents were able to report the presence of a large and varied collection of war materials on board an outward bound ship the other day. "He that hides, finds," was one of our schoolboy says that often hits the nail on the head. (One does not always require a hammer for this operation.)

INDORSE THE PURPOSE.

A petition, signed by 20,000 clergymen of all creeds and indorsed by the Catholic Welfare Council, the Jewish Synagogues and the Protestant church councils, has been presented to President Harding demanding that he call a world conference on disarmament. With the True Voice we heartily indorse the purpose of the petition to abolish war, but we have our doubts about the world ever coming to that state of blessedness. As long as men are men they will disagree and quarrel. Nations are like men, only more selfish and ruthless. War will always remain a possibility—but any scheme which will make it less likely is to be commended. We favor disarmament under proper guarantees.

BEAR IN MIND.

With so many of our own people out of employment, it is hardly wise or patriotic to patronize places where foreign products are put on sale. "Buy American goods only" should be our motto at this time of business depression, and we shall soon see a corresponding brightening of the industrial skies.

SHOULD PONDER.

Georgia has the highest percentage of illiterates and divorcees and bigots of any State in the Union, and the lowest percentage of Jackass votes. This is something our pro-British Admirals should ponder on while on his weary pilgrimage through this land of drought.

WAS GOOD MAN.

Catholic Knights of America throughout the United States mourn the death at St. Louis of Peter Wallrath, the Supreme Treasurer of that order. Since 1900 he had resided in Evansville, and was a member of the Indiana Legislature in 1897, and fathered a resolution excluding anti-Catholic books like "The Story of Liberty," from public schools and libraries. In May, 1919, the Supreme Council of the Catholic Knights of America elected Mr. Wallrath as the Supreme Treasurer of the order, with headquarters in St. Louis. Mr. Wallrath was a most genial, good-natured and lovable character. He was a deeply religious man, and always very active in Catholic matters. A man of massive build and fine presence, he was a conspicuous figure in Catholic gatherings, particularly in Indiana. He knew more about the great struggle of the church for liberty in Germany than any man of his time in that State, and was a high authority on that subject. He had often visited in Louisville and had many friends here.

DEAD SOLDIER HERO.

Funeral services for Corp. John J. Kerberg, twenty-three years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Kerberg, 401 West Thirteenth street, Jeffersonville, were held Sunday afternoon at St. Augustine's church. After spending a week in Minneapolis as guests of the Misses Flaherty, they will go to Great Falls, Mont., for a three months' visit with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Flaherty, who will be remembered as Miss Margaret Higgins. At Great Falls they will be joined by Miss Carrie Walston, who is now visiting her sister in Kansas City.

WIDESPREAD SORROW.

Words can not adequately describe the shock caused by the sudden and untimely death of Frank McGrath, who was struck by an automobile at Fourth and Walnut streets Monday afternoon.

living only eighteen minutes. In that eighteen minutes he showed two of his strong characteristics—bravery in the face of death and faith in his Mother Church, calling for a priest to make his last peace with God. Very Rev. P. M. J. Rock, of the Cathedral, administered extreme unction to the dying man. The news of his death spread quickly, circulated by the thousands of his friends faster than it could be issued from the newspapers.

Frank McGrath was raised in the neighborhood of Seventh and Breckinridge, being a pupil of St. Louis Bertrand's school. In this section, known as "Limerick," he was a big favorite as a boy and that popularity clung to him growing into manhood. Men and women, old and young, in "Limerick" idolized Frank McGrath, and with his entrance into politics as a lieutenant of the late Col. John H. Whitten they followed their favorite in support of his choice or choices, and no man ever had a more loyal and devoted following. In the passing of years Mr. McGrath came to be a power in city, county and State politics, power and influence becoming his, but he never forgot the loyal hand of friends and supporters from his old district. When the wayward boy was in trouble Frank McGrath needed no second request from the old parents, but went to the front with all the vigor and power in his possession, and his purse was ever open to help the suffering or aid the friend or family that was in need. Big in body and big in heart, he could not say no to a request for help, and long after Frank McGrath has been forgotten in political circles he will be remembered in the prayers of the many he has aided in their time of trouble and distress.

Mr. McGrath is survived by his wife, Mrs. Margaret Gorman McGrath; three sons, James Edward and Robert; and two daughters, Helen and Louise, to whom it extended our heartfelt sympathy. The funeral took place from the family residence, 1510 Fourth street, Wednesday morning at 8:30 o'clock and from St. Louis Bertrand's church at 9, with a solemn requiem mass. The pall bearers were Mr. McGrath's nephews, Bernard, William, Neil, Harry, John and Charles McDovitt. The mass was said by Very Rev. J. R. Heenan as celebrant, Rev. B. F. Enlis, deacon, and Rev. C. G. Lyons as sub-deacon. The choir was under the direction of Mrs. May Harig, "Lead Kindly Light" being sung by Miss Nellie McBride and "Ave Maria" rendered by Edward J. Wolfe. St. Louis Bertrand's church was thronged to the doors with all classes, crowds and colors to pay their last respects to the deceased. The interment was in St. Louis cemetery.

TAUGHT AT OMAHA.

Sister Patricia, of the Ursuline order, arrived here last week from Omaha, where she was studying for the past year, and will spend the vacation season at the Sacred Heart Academy, Crescent Hill. Sister Patricia was Miss Margaret Dugan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Dugan, Rosewood avenue, before entering upon her religious life. She was a favorite in the circles in which she moved.

REALIZE NICE SUM.

The picnic under the auspices of Division A. O. H., at Summers Park last Sunday was a success socially and financially, and President Jos. D. Hennessy and the other officers are more than pleased over the result, and contemplate announcing a repetition before the summer is over. It was also announced that Mrs. Mary Flynn, of 1308 Sixth street had been awarded the Cecil avenue lot by the division.

UNIVERSAL CELEBRATION.

Elaborate plans for a universal celebration of Independence day are being made by the 700,000 members of the American Association for the Recognition of the Irish Republic, according to announcement made by Peter Golden, National Secretary. The programme adopted at the national convention of the association will be carried out. It will consist of the singing of the Star Spangled Banner in its original form, the reading of the Declaration of Independence in its entirety and the reading of Washington's farewell address. Other patriotic features will complete the programme.

WE FIND PEOPLE asking many questions as to "how the Louisville Gas & Electric Company is getting along with its Customer-ownership plan."

You will see the answer boiled down in a few words in the headlines of this advertisement.

These are the results of a period of about thirteen months. When the Customer-ownership plan was started there were already 1,300 or 1,400 Louisville citizens owning stock, bonds and notes of this organization.

So today we find that upward of 3,000 Louisville citizens are financially interested in the great properties which supply them with the daily vital necessities of electricity and gas.

The money invested by our 1,700 new shareholders has gone into additions and extensions to the properties—has stayed right here in Louisville, and put to work in useful public service. So placed at work this $1,000,000 earns $700,000 a year for the people who invested it.

The earnings are paid to them by checks mailed to their addresses every ninety days.

If you are looking for a really safe and dependable investment, paying 7 per cent. as regularly as the clock ticks, you should get in touch with our investment department.

SUMMER SCHOOL

We do not close during the summer months. One may enroll any time, as we give both individual and class instruction. Both Day and Night classes in Book-keeping, Penmanship, Short-hand, Typewriting and kindred subjects. The patrons and friends of this paper will do well to look into the merits of this school. Ask a number of business men who have employed our graduates—they know. For superior merits of system, quality of instruction and economy of cost you can not equal it. See us and we can tell you why.

HERO AT REST.

Impressive funeral services for Private James Hart Metcalfe, the first United States Marine of Kentucky and the second in the land to be killed in action on the Western front, were conducted Saturday morning at St. Charles Borromeo church, Twenty-seventh and Chestnut streets. The body arrived here from overseas Friday and was taken to the home of his aunt, Mrs. David Criles, 2612 West Chestnut street. Enlisting with the Marines on his twenty-first birthday in Louisville, June 19, 1917, he saw early action with Company 96, Sixth Regiment. He was fatally wounded in the Verdun sector April 5, 1918, and died a few days later. His parents, who resided near Camp Taylor, were so grieved by the death of their son that they moved away to escape the reminiscent scene that ever recalled their loss. It was said. Private Metcalfe is survived by his parents; two sisters, Mrs. Blanche Crank and Mrs. Lucile Holtsclaw; three uncles, Elijah Metcalfe, Frank Walter and Alfred Metcalfe, and two aunts, Mrs. Sophie Senf and Mrs. Theresa Freeman, wife of Patrick Freeman.

HAPPILY WEDDED.

The marriage of Miss Florence Kipp and Roy P. Hartman took place at St. Columba's church, Rev. Father Kalaher celebrating the nuptial high mass and performing the ceremony. The bride's gown was of white crepe meteor, made with draped skirt and trimmed with real lace. Her veil was adjusted with orange blossoms and she carried a shower bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Magdalene Hartman was the maid of honor and she wore a taffeta frock and large hat to match. She carried an arm bouquet of pink sweet peas. Miss Aline Kiehl, the bridesmaid, wore a frock of apricot-colored organdy trimmed in organdy roses and a large black hat. Her flowers were an arm bouquet of lavender sweet peas. Charles Nolan was the best man and the ushers were Messrs. Andy Bloemer, Albert Gorman and George Campbell.

Following the ceremony a breakfast was served after which Mr. and Mrs. Hartman left for a two-weeks' trip to New York and Washington.

ENJOY GRADUATION PARTY.

"Let's Help to Set Old Ireland Free."

is the title of a new song just issued, the words of which are by Mrs. M. E. Henry-Ruffin, the well known Southern Catholic writer of Mobile, Ala., with the musical setting by the successful composer, Ethel Hanson, of Chicago. The words are very patriotic and stirring, and the music a spirited marching air.

BISHOP KOUDELKA PASSES.

Bishop Joseph M. Koudelka, of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Superior, died Friday after a long illness. His death had been expected momentarily for three days. Bishop Koudelka was born in Chistovo, Bohemia, December 8, 1852, and came to America sixteen years later. His first charge was St. Prokopius parish in Cleveland. When Bishop Horstmann, of Cleveland, asked for an auxiliary Bishop, Father Koudelka was named Bishop November 29, 1907. He was transferred as auxiliary to Archbishop Messner, at Milwaukee, September 4, 1911, and August 1, 1913, was appointed head of the Superior diocese. In 1916 Bishop Koudelka visited the Vatican and was appointed assistant to the Pontifical throne July 13, 1917.

MILITARY NECESSITY.

Dan Eirann, through the Irish Bulletin, has officially stated that the burning of the Custom House by Irish Republicans forces was an unavoidable military necessity. To quote the Bulletin: "We in common with the rest of the nation regret the destruction of historic buildings. But the lives of four million people are a more sacred thing than any architectural masterpiece. The Custom House was one of the seats of an alien tyranny. If it had been possible to strike as effectively at the tyranny it represented without injury to the structure the Custom House would have been spared. But it was not possible. The destruction was an unavoidable military necessity. The press which cries out against it is the same press which remained callously silent when fifteen city and town halls were being blown to bits in various parts of Ireland, and while whole streets of shops and hundreds of residences and farmsteads were being wiped out of existence by British soldiers and 'police.' According to the Bulletin the paralysis which the Custom House has caused in the tax-gathering department is complete." These taxing departments not only deprived Ireland each year of vast sums, but supplied the enemies of the nation with the peoples' own money to be used for the destruction of Irish life and property."

CONDEMNNS BRITISH PRACTICES.

Charges that the British forces in Ireland have been guilty of cruelties and inhuman punishments without parallel in the history of civilization were made by Senator George W. Norris, Nebraska, Senator Norris urged passage of his resolution condemning the practices of the British forces in Ireland and expressing the sympathy of the Senate for the efforts of the Irish people to have a government of their own choosing. The resolution is a companion piece of the La Follette resolution recognizing the independence of the Irish Republic. Both measures are now before the Foreign Relations Committee and Mr. Norris' speech was the opening gun of a vigorous campaign to force action on the measures at the present session of Congress. Senator Norris contended that the British Government has not only broken its promise, given during the war, to apply the principle of self-determination to Ireland, but that since the cessation of hostilities its conduct toward Ireland has been worse than ever before. He reviewed the British policy in Ireland and recounted scores of atrocities attributed to British soldiers. He quoted at length statements made during the war by Premier David Lloyd George, Herbert Asquith, Lord Robert Cecil, Winston Churchill, Andrew Bonar Law, Sir Edward Grey and others, who he declared, led Ireland to believe that she would gain her freedom when the democratic ideals expounded by President Woodrow Wilson had triumphed over Germany.

WORKING WITH SUCCESS.

Since 1880 the Fathers S. V. D. are working with remarkable success in the Shantung district of China. There are at present seventy-two priests and twelve brothers of the society in Shantung. Now in addition the Holy See has transferred to the Society of the Divine Word what will comprise a new mission district, that of the Province of Kansu, one of the most western provinces of China proper. The new district is made up of the Vicariate Apostolic of North Kansu and the Prefecture Apostolic of South Kansu. The political province of Kansu possesses an area of about 200,000 square miles, that is a territory approximately in size the whole Atlantic seaboard from the St. John river to the Potomac, including part of New Brunswick and the Atlantic States as far as Virginia. The population of this political territory is said to total some 10,390,000 inhabitants. The Society of the Divine Word can but rejoice over this recent acquisition to the mission territory now in their charge. We recommend this new vast mission field of the Society to the prayers and support of our kind readers.

ELECTED REGENT.

James A. Farrell, President of the United States Steel Corporation, has been elected to the Board of Regents of Georgetown University. Mr. Farrell, who will serve for two years, has been largely interested in the Georgetown School of Foreign Service. His selection fills a vacancy caused by the death of Anthony A. Hirst, of Philadelphia, who donated the Hirst Library to the college. The Regents will meet in New York in the near future to plan an expansion of the work of the University and the establishment of additional courses.

ATTEND YOUR CHURCH.

The Catholic Church doesn't rejoice in the dearth of preachers in the Protestant churches. The advice of any Catholic priest to any non-Catholic of his acquaintance would be, "Go to church." He wouldn't attempt to drag him into the Catholic Church, but would suggest his going to his own church if he had one, but in any case some church. Father Duffy's attitude on the battlefields of France indicates the Catholic state of mind. He would divide the Catholics and Protestants into groups and after assembling the Protestants would hunt up a Protestant chaplain to preach to them while he held services for the Catholics.

CORK FIRE LOSS.

The losses suffered by the incendiary fire in Cork now total in excess of $20,000,000. Great property loss has also been sustained through the Black and Tans in Cashel, Tipperary, Claro, Cavan, Kerry and Wexford.

BOSTON DRIVES.

Boston has just closed two remarkable drives for funds. Contributions in excess of $3,500,000 were received. To extend the facilities of Boston College, nearly $2,500,000 was received, while more than $750,000 was turned in to relieve the distress in Ireland.

WHERE LEGION LEADS.

New York, with 65,243 members, leads the country as the largest American Legion State. In the Union, Illinois is second with 52,732 members, and Pennsylvania third with 51,502.

FASTER THAN LIGHT.

Electricity travels about 62,000 miles further in a second than does light.

A postcard club is being formed, which meets every Sunday at the game, and all members are urged to join, as good rooting is essential to good baseball.

RECENT DEATHS.

Funeral services for James Holahan, aged sixty-six, were held Monday morning at St. Louis Bertrand church. He is survived by his widow, two daughters and one son, who reside at 724 West St. Catherine street.

Monday morning the funeral of Miss Helen J. Weber, eighteen years old, took place from St. Elizabeth's church. Her death followed an operation for appendicitis and was a severe shock to her many friends. She is survived by her mother, Mrs. Mary Weber, 1119 Forrest avenue; a brother, Henry Weber, and two sisters, Misses Anna Marie and Evelyn L. Weber.

News of the death on Saturday morning of Mrs. Virginia Collings McAteer, 1848 Cherokee road, beloved wife of John McAteer, spread a pall of gloom among her wide circle of friends and acquaintances. A woman of high standing and lovable in every way, she was held in high esteem by all who enjoyed her acquaintance. Besides her husband, she is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Charles R. Long, Jr., Mrs. James M. Wintersmith and Mrs. Harry R. Downes; a brother, Crittenden T. Collings, and a sister, Miss Emily Collings. One son also survives her, Vincent J. McAteer, of Texas.

CHICKEN SUPPER.

The people of St. Denis church, Cane Run road, promise their select chicken supper for the season at their picnic to be held next Tuesday afternoon and evening. With a stove designed and built for frying chickens which does not dry up the meat they have made a reputation for their fried chicken. Rev. Father Zoeller and his parishioners invite their city friends to come out and take supper with them on that day, when they will enjoy all the features of a real country picnic. Take the bus line at Twenty-eighth and Dumesnil.

SUCCESS.

Charles M. Schwab, the great steel magnate, stands on good ground when he says: "The real successes in life are not always the men who have made lots of money. My idea of the successful life is that of the man who has accomplished the objects for which he set out, who has done something that is worthy of a real American."

HINTS ON STYLE.

Tea and coffee shades are rivaling gray.

Many tailor-made worn these days have no belt.

Burnt orange and honeydew are the leading shades.

Cretone and gingham parasols are offered this summer.

Tailored suits are more popular this season than they have been since the war.

Sailor hats plainly banded, or wound around the crown with crepe, are much worn.

Soft, supple silks, particularly crepes, have a great place in summer fashion affairs.

The short back poke has done a good deal toward reviving interest in the drooping brim.

The campus coat made of camel's hair is a slip-on V-neck sweater that is fast meeting with favor.

It is reported that organdie will be as much in favor this summer as last. Organdie hats will also be very popular.

Several smart hats have a high-back trimming, which stimulate Spanish combs. These are often made of lace or plaited malines.

Handkerchiefs of linen are colored all the bright shades of the rainbow. Some in plain shades have the tiniest of rolled edges and little white initials worked in the corners.

BEST FLOOR WAX.

The best wax for a floor is made of a mixture of beeswax, paraffin and turpentine.

FACES UTTER RUIN.

A man who until recently was in the British service in Ireland has informed some of his friends that if Sinn Fein can hold out for a few months longer England will be forced to accept any terms Ireland may choose to offer. England is already beaten, he says, and he has been in a position to see things from the inside. The mountain of expense which England's policy in Ireland has piled up has put her in a financial straits of despair from which there is no escape. Her ships are crowding her harbors waiting in vain for cargoes; her factories are almost idle, and armies of idle hungry workers marching and counter-marching through the streets of her great cities have filled the whole country with a sense of impending catastrophe which is horrible. This is the condition to which the Lloyd George-Tory policy of terrorism in Ireland has brought the English people. A change must soon take place if England is to be saved from utter ruin. A free Ireland reaching out for the necessary supplies to enable her people to live as civilized and progressive people should live would soon set England's shops and factories running full blast. This is an aspect of the situation that the friends of Ireland should press home into the minds of the British nation.

MINISTERS' OPINIONS.

At the Presbyterian General Assembly, held in Belfast, Rev. Armour declared the Northern Parliament was a legislative boycott of three-fourths of Ireland, and therefore was doomed to failure. Another clergyman, Rev. Strahan, said he was indebted to the Sinn Fein for quick transit along the road to attend the assembly. Rev. Young, referring to his experience as a Presbyterian minister in the west of Ireland, said that his people never suffered any discourtesy from their neighbors on the ground of religion.

GONE TO EUROPE.

The Rev. John B. Puffer, pastor of St. Helen's church, on the Eighteenth-street road, sailed last week for Germany, to be gone until October.

HOOT, MON!

"How's your cold, Donald?"
"Verra obstinate."
"And how's your wife?"
"About the same."

FRESHEN MATTING.

Sponge with strong salt water. If much faded or stained, sponge with strong soda water. Grass and fibre rugs may be freshened with salt water, but are injured by the soda solution.

TAKES OUT SPOTS.

Cover grease spots on wall paper with white blotting paper and hold a warm iron over them. Repeat this operation with a fresh piece of paper until all the grease is absorbed.

SAVE THIS BELL.

A silver bell, which is said to be the first bell rung on the signing of the Declaration of Independence, is said to be hanging in the tower of St. Francis Xavier's church, Vincennes, Ind.

SHE DID NOT.

Mrs. Easthill—Aren't you going to invite Mrs. Grogan to your dinner party?

Mrs. Rosehill—Certainly not; I entertained her once before and she never recuperated.

WHEN WASHING PAINT.

Soap of course removes the paint, or at any rate the gloss. Use instead of it a cupful of carpenter's glue melted and poured into a pail of warm water. It removes the dirt and leaves a good gloss.

MUSICAL EVENING.

A splendid musical treat was enjoyed by the members of the St. Helena's Co-operative Club at their social meeting when Prof. Patrick O'Sullivan and Miss Marie Dumstorf rendered Liza's Concerto No. 2. The rendition of this well-known number was executed with natural grace and poise throughout the long and difficult composition. Rev. Daniel Lindefer, O. F. M., was next on the programme and entertained the girls with an amusing talk in his witty and winning way. Miss Martha Fisher showed much promise in her recitation. Her selection was "The Ruggles Getting Ready for the Dinner Party," taken from "The Bird's Christmas Carol." The closing number, a Japanese fan drill, was also much enjoyed.

K. OF C. RETREAT.

The first section of Knights of Columbus pilgrims to make the retreat at Gethsemane monastery will leave next Friday morning at 8:23 (railroad time) from Union Station, the delegation to consist of members of the order and their friends. The second retreat will be held July 15, 16 and 17, while the third is announced for July 22, 23 and 24. The expense is $13.50, which includes railroad fare for the round trip. Those returning from the first retreat will arrive in Louisville at 7:40 Monday, July 11.

CATHOLIC CHIEF JUSTICES.

The death recently of Chief Justice White of the United States Supreme Court recalls the fact that the Chief Justices of three of the greatest countries in the world, during practically the same generation, have been practicing members of the Catholic Church. Edward Douglass White adorned that exalted position in the United States; Sir Charles Fitzpatrick has held it with distinguished honor in the Dominion of Canada, and Lord Russell made it the crowning glory of an honorable career in England.

RELATIVES IN RELIGION.

The celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of Sister Mary Bernard Hayes' religious profession in the Sisters of Mercy took place recently at the Academy of Our Lady of Mercy in Joplin, Mo. She was born in Ireland in 1844, and on the death of her parents, during the Civil War, was educated by her uncle, Right Rev. John J. Hogan, the first Bishop of Kansas City. Sister Mary Bernard comes from a religious family, there being more than fifty relatives either priests or religious.

BOTH BILLS DEAD.

The Sheppard-Towner maternity bill "is dead" for this session of Congress. So is the Smith-Towner education bill, according to Representative Simon D. Fess, of Ohio, Chairman of the House Committee on Education and one of the House leaders. The maternity bill, which was so strongly advocated by women's organizations throughout the country, may be reviewed at the December session of Congress, according to Fess, "but there is not a chance for it during the special session."

GIFT FROM FANS.

Prior to his assumption of the pastorate at Mt. Jewett, Pa., Rev. C. J. Gleason, assistant pastor of St. Stephen church, Oil City, was the guest of honor at a dinner at the Arlington Hotel, at which he was presented with a gold watch by the players of the Oil City Baseball Club and a purse by baseball fans. He was also presented with a substantial purse by members of St. Stephen's congregation.

RECOVERING.

The Rev. J. R. Clark, O. P., one of the Southern band of Dominican missionaries, who had his tonsils removed last week, is recovering from the operation.

VISITS LEPER COLONY.

The Very Rev. Leo Greulich, O. M. C., formerly of this city, but now Provincial and stationed at Syracuse, and Very Rev. Norbert Scheid, O. M. C., superior and rector of the Church of the Assumption, who returned recently from an official visitation of the leper colony of the Hawaiian Islands, visited the leper colony at Molokai. The Sisters of St. Anthony's Convent, of which Mother Margaret is the head, have been in charge of the colony since thirty years ago, when the Hawaiian King Kalakaua appealed to the Bishop of Honolulu for Sisters to care for the women and girls on the leper island. The Franciscan Sisters at Syracuse at once accepted the call. At present there are thirty-five Sisters on the island, all of whom have been sent out from Syracuse.

The priests spent Easter Sunday on the leper island and were impressed with the piety and devotion manifested at the mass and other services. Although they suffer a great deal of pain, they are cheerful and charitable, always ready to help one another. Some of the patients are blind and many are unable to walk. Father Scheid visited many of the lepers in their cottages and said that they were all neat and clean and very friendly. It is a great day for them when a stranger arrives on the island, for very few people are allowed to visit them.

A new treatment, consisting of an oil from a certain tree in India, is now being tried. For some years the patients have been taking it internally without any result, but it was discovered that injecting the oil was successful. The injection is given once a week, and the reaction of the medicine causes intense pain for two days. However, the lepers are very anxious for the treatment, for they all live in hope that they will sometime be cured. Dr. Trotter, Commissioner of Health in Honolulu, told Father Scheid that he believes, that with this treatment, leprosy will be conquered in ten years. Those who are incurable will have died by that time, and the treatment will prevent any further spreading of the disease.

EARN GOLD STARS.

At the meeting of the letter carriers' local union this week William

F. Koster, the well known postman, was awarded two gold stars in recognition of his thirty-five years' service in the organization and as a carrier for Uncle Sam. Mr. Koster, who is now on the route from York to Kentucky and from Fifth to Sixth street, "BBL," he is known to all, is deservedly popular and is busy receiving congratulations.

TWIN CITY LEAGUE.

Trinity Council and the Knights of Columbus staged the feature game in the Twin City League Sunday, Summers and Brownfield, the veteran pitchers, furnishing a battle royal, Sun and Trinity, Delele vs. Trinity, the final score being 4 to 3. The St. X. club hung onto second place by defeating the Knights of St. John 16 to 9. Macklin ran away from Delisle by a score of 14 to 3. Tomorrow they play as follows: Macklin vs. Trinity, Delele vs. Knights of St. John and St. X. vs. K. of C. Sunday, July 10, will be the annual field day celebration of the Twin City at Eclipse Park and Trinity and St. X. will meet again and the champs of last season will have to beat Trinity to have a look-in for the flag. In addition many field events will be staged and the many followers of the Twin City should turn out en masse to give the officials and players an encouragement for the splendid amateur hall being furnished throughout the season.

COLONELS VS. HOOSIERS.

The Louisville ball club left Columbus for home last night and will appear at Eclipse Park this afternoon in the first of a series of four games with Indianapolis, today, tomorrow and a morning and afternoon game Monday, the Fourth of July. These are the only home games until July 23, as following Monday's game the club goes for a swing around the entire Western circuit. With the club fighting hard to secure a firm hold on first place it is up to the fans to turn out and give them a rousing send-off in the present season with Indianapolis. Speaking of club support, it is significant to note that Toledo was not satisfied with attendance of 3,000 at last Saturday's game, although the club has been consistently fighting with the cellar. This must shame the supposed Louisville hoosiers when it is considered that the Colonels in first place playing Toledo last Saturday a week had less than that amount.

SCHWAB'S FINE PRESENT.

During the celebration of the sacerdotal golden jubilee of Rev. Ferdinand Klott, rector of St. Michael church, Loretto, Pa., he was presented with a Buick automobile by Mrs. Charles M. Schwab and a purse of $2,500 by the members of the congregation.

APPEALS FOR IRELAND.

Organized labor immediately will call on President Warren G. Harding, his Cabinet and Congress to bring about recognition of the Irish Republic and will protest to Great Britain against the "brutal and uncivilized warfare being conducted in Ireland." In accordance with instructions at the convention of the Executive Committee of the American Federation of Labor authorized President Samuel Gompers to take up the Irish matter at once with the Government officials. The council also authorized the sending immediately of a communication to Premier David Lloyd George and his Cabinet, protesting against the "campaign of violence and destruction in Ireland."

APPOINTED FIRST ASSISTANT.

Deserving honors have come to James J. Lenhan, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, who has just been named as first of the four special assistants to Attorney General Daugherty in Washington. During the last Presidential campaign Lenhan was in charge of the speakers' bureau for the Western division of the Republican party and his service no doubt had much to do with his selection for the important post to which he has been assigned. For several years he has been practicing law in Cedar Rapids. He is a fourth degree Knight of Columbus and a brother of Rev. D. J. Lenhan, of Cedar Rapids.

PAPAL HONORS GIVEN.

Right Rev. Peter J. Muldoon, Bishop of Rockford, Ill., has been named by Pope Benedict as assistant at the Pontifical throne. The Pontiff has appointed Very Rev. P. F. Farrelly, rector of the Church of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin, Emmetsburg, Iowa, and Rev. Anthony H. Stein, rector of St. Joseph church, Paterson, N. J., to be domestic prelates. He also has conferred the decoration of Knight-hood of the Order of St. Gregory the Great upon Capt. P. H. Rice, of Augusta, Georgia, for his excellent work in connection with the activities of the Catholic Laymen's Association of Georgia.

FEAST OF VISITATION.

This Saturday is the feast of the Visitation of the Blessed Virgin. When after the annunciation Mary visited the house of her cousin, St. Elizabeth, the latter was filled with the Holy Ghost, and bursting into raptures of astonishment at the mystery of the incarnation, she addressed Mary and pronounced her blessed above all other women. Mary stayed with her cousin almost three months, after which she returned to Nazareth.

JUNIOR CIRCLE.

The Junior Circle of the Queen's Daughters is arranging a "moon-light" on the steamer America for Friday, July 15, at 8 o'clock. The Queen's Daughters do much charity work, and they hope soon to establish a day nursery. All the entertainments the Junior Circle plan are most attractive, and no doubt a large crowd will take advantage of the opportunity for a ride up the river on a hot evening.

WIPE OUT DEBT.

A campaign to raise $50,000 to wipe out the floating debt on the Church of the Sacred Heart, West Fifty-first street, New York City, has been undertaken as a part of the celebration in honor of the golden jubilee of the ordination of Right Rev. Msgr. Joseph P. Mooney, rector of the church and senior Vicar General of the archdiocese.

JOLLY CAMP PARTY.

With Miss Catherine Broderick as leader the following girls have been spending the week at Camp Chelan: Misses Juanita Hobbs, Marie Katzenberger, Ruth Mueller, Genevieve Bohr, Bertha Rabert, Flora Mae Ridge, Anna Bell Gregory, Ruth Cash, Catherine Briscoe, Elizabeth Chamberlain, Irene Cummings, Lavina Meyer, Jeanette McGown, Hazel Biegler.

COST $500 EACH.

The cost of returning the bodies of American soldiers from France is approximately $500 each.

MILLIONS ARE ASSESSED.

Within the last year the Irish people have been assessed more than $25,000,000 in American money at the present rate of exchange for personal and property damage in twenty-one counties and four boroughs. The assessments have been made against them by British judges in Ireland and a large percentage represents the amount awarded Black and Tans for injuries and alleged injuries received in conflict with Irish Republican troops. According to the British law under which the awards are made they must be paid by the rate payers in the particular district in which the alleged personal or property damage occurred. While the British judges continue to make the awards the Irish people continue to refuse to pay them and so far their efforts have been successful.

In County Meath the total awards made last year to wounded Black and Tans amounted to nearly $5,000,000, while in County Down about one half that amount was assessed against the rate payers. The awards in County Sligo have been larger than those in County Meath. The awards in County Cork have passed the $15,000,000 mark, while in Roscommon they have reached close to $1,000,000. Other counties have not suffered such enormous awards because of the fact that military activities have not been so frequent in their counties as other parts of Ireland. One in Black and Tan constable was awarded $5,000 because he lost a part of his mustache in a conflict; another was awarded $7,500 because he testified that he had been kidnapped by the Irish forces and held captive over night. His new one system was shattered as a result, he said. The Irish Republicans had no record of his being captured. He had forgotten where it happened.
